5 - After registration information is received, Camber College will issue you an official Letter of Acceptance and school documentation.

6 - If you require a visitor's visa or Student Authorization to enter Canada, take your Letter of Acceptance to the nearest Canadian Embassy or Consulate with your application.

Refund Policy

The Camber College refund policy follows guidelines set out by the The Private Career Training Institutions Agency (PCTIA). All student refunds must be requested in writing.

Housing Refund Policy

Written notice must be received by the college two weeks prior to any change in living arrangements. If less than two weeks notice is given, there will be no refund for the remainder of that month. The placement fee for housing is non-refundable.

Refunds before the start of classes

- If a student visa is denied by Immigration Canada, there will be a full refund minus CAD$200.
- If a student withdraws from Camber College seven days or less after registration, Camber College will refund all fees minus CAD$400.
- If a student withdraws 30 days or more before a course starts there will be a 75% refund.
- If a student withdraws less than 30 days before a course starts there will be a 60% refund.

Refunds after the start of classes

- Up to 10% of course attended 50% refund
- Up to 30% of course attended 30% refund
- More than 30% of course attended No refund

Program Change Fee Policy

Students will be charged a course change fee of CAD$75 if, after they have registered, they change their course dates or accommodation dates. Any change that results in a shortening of the course duration or a downgrade in the course intensity will be subject to Camber College's refund policy. Tuition fees are non-transferable.

I have read and I agree with the refund policy of Camber College, as well as the accommodation and the programs policy, as well as the written in this register form.
